HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week--General
News Notes.

Joe Lynch is being congratulated upon his appointment to the police force.

The Ladies' Auxiliary at Richmond, Ind., will soon have a membership of 100.

Miss Rose Sweeney has made a fine record as President of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Mayor McCarthy, of San Francisco, was recently initiated into the order by Division 5 of that city.

One of the side altars in the new St. Patrick's church at Nashville, N. C., was the gift of the Hibernians.

The Ladies' Auxiliary made a splendid showing Tuesday night, surpassing all the divisions in numbers.

Next month officers for all the divisions must be elected. Choose only the best men. Then the order will grow.

The Louisville Ladies' Auxiliary will be one of the first to forward the pro rata for the Catholic Extension Society.

Division 3 meets Monday night and every member who can should attend. There will be an election for new members.

Thomas Lynch, John Browne and William Callaghan, of Division 4, were welcome visitors at the reception of Division 1.

Patrick J. Haltigan, editor of the National Hibernian, was grand marshal of the great Holy Name parade in Washington.

Syracuse Hibernians have decided that the Grand Marshalship of the St. Patrick's day parade will hereafter be held by the divisions in numerical order.

Everybody was pleased to meet ex-State President Butler with Division 1 on Tuesday night.

What division will give the next reception? Let them take place frequently.

Milwaukee Hibernians commemorated the memory of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, with special exercises and an address by Judge John Donovan on Wednesday evening.

It would be surprising to many to know the good work the auxiliary and divisions had done during the past two years. The donations for charitable purposes alone mount up in the thousands.

After defraying the expenses of the State convention, the purchase of costly paraphernalia and the payment of the national assessment, the local Ladies' Auxiliary will close the year with a healthy treasury.

The County Board can begin preparations for the observance of St. Patrick's day with the opening of the new year. The elections will then be over and the board organized for the ensuing two years.

OLD TIMERS

Present at Last Meeting of Division 4,
A. O. H.

Division 4, A. O. H., met Monday evening in regular session at Bertrand Hall, with all officers present except Treasurer Harry J. Brady, who has had a slight attack of illness. John Gilmore was obligated as a member by President John Hennessey and the application of Michael Madden was received. William Callaghan, delegate to the Catholic Federation, reported that the last meeting of that body was a most successful one, the Bishop and Vicar General being present and pledging their hearty support.

Sergt. Thomas Brown, John Hickey, Steve Dunigan and William McDonogh were present after long absence and made short talks, promising more faithful attendance in the future. Division 4 is planning a series of encores for later in the season. Secretary John J. Winn, who leaves tomorrow for Juarez, Mexico, to be gone until next spring, was given the glad hand by the members and wished a God-speed.

AGED PRIEST DEAD.

The funeral of Rev. Andrew Lindenfield, the oldest priest in Louisville, took place Thursday morning from St. Boniface church, where the body laid in state since Wednesday. Father Lindenfield was formerly assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul and Holy Trinity churches, and was a priest of great zeal and piety. He was born in Germany in 1827, and coming to this country while young he studied for the priesthood and was ordained at Annapolis in 1864. Four years ago he came to Louisville in search of health and had since resided here. He is survived by a sister, Sister Mary Andrew, of St. Gabriel's Convent at New York; a sister residing in Germany, a sister-in-law, Mrs. B. Lindenfield, of Louisville, and five nephews and four nieces.

HOLDS ITS BIG TRACT.

At East St. Louis on Tuesday the title to 6,500 acres of land in Kaskaskia Commons, St. Clair county, Ill., was confirmed to the Immaculate Conception parish by Circuit Judge Crow. The Illinois Legislature had sought to sell the land, the money to go to the school fund of Kaskaskia Commons. The land was granted to the parish by the French Government in 1700.

MOVING PICTURES.

The attendance at the Casino and Orpheum picture theaters keeps up to capacity at the afternoon and night performances. For next week entirely new spectacles are promised, embracing a number of most pleasing features. At both there will be the usual changes and illustrated songs not heard here before. Only pictures that have been approved

CASHEL

And Its Ancient Ivy Clad
Home of Dominican Order.

In another column appears a poem on one of Ireland's historic abbeys from the pen of P. Phillips, who has relatives and friends in Kentucky. The Dominican Abbey is situated in The Moor, at Cashel. It is one of those beautiful, ivy-clad old friaries, a true relic of property of and used by the Dominican order, that order which did so much for education, civilization and Christianity during the period of Ireland's greatest agony. The dear old abbey, though dismantled and showing the ravages of time, is still in a good state of preservation. The venerable castle is as erect and as firmly rooted as though the moss of centuries never adorned it. Some beautiful windows, artistic in design and workmanship, are to be seen here. Solitude permeated with an atmosphere of old-world sanctity hovers round the deserted aisle and ruined cloisters of the old place, bringing vividly to mind the vanity of things earthly and the immortality of the unseen. This abbey is one of the spots that attract the attention of Catholic American tourists in Ireland.

BUFFALO'S NEW CATHEDRAL.

The new Cathedral that Bishop Colton will erect in Buffalo will be worthy the standing and fame of the diocese, and will take rank with the grandest ecclesiastical structures in the land. In style it will be the pure Gothic. It will be vast and imposing. It will be over 100 feet within, while the apex of the roof will reach 140 feet. Two large towers will flank the front, the spires running to a height of 260 feet. The material used will be pure white marble, inside as well as out. Taken altogether it will be an edifice of which Buffalo can well be proud. The furnishings, namely the altars, windows, pews, organ, all will be of the best material and finest workmanship. It will require nearly two years' constant work to complete the edifice, and the cost without the furnishings will be $500,000.

MCCARTHY FOR REDMOND.

Just McCarthy, the veteran patriot, historian, journalist and novelist, is eighty years of age, having been born in the city of Cork in November, 1820. In a recent interview he said: "In Irish politics today I take my stand with Redmond, and pin my faith to him. I have always held that you can only make Ireland loyal to the empire by giving her the same freedom of legislative action that Lord Durham gave to Canada."

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The late Rev. William Burke, of Kilmacthomas, County Wexford, left personal estate valued at about $18,000.

John Francis D'Alton has been elected Master of Strokestown Workhouse in room of Thomas McDermott, who resigned.

The Lisburn Guardians have appointed Dr. H. S. Murphy medical officer of the Union in room of the late Dr. McKenzie, J. P.

The Drogheda Guardians have unanimously elected Dr. P. D. McCullen as medical officer of St. Mullens dispensary district.

Thomas Leitham, of Killeshandra, has won six prizes, five firsts and one second, for the best kept cottage under the County Committee's scheme.

The Ballyglass District Council recently approved of a scheme asking the county council to seek a loan of $20,000 to improve the road from Ballyglass to Kiltegan.

A large force of police seized all the available stock on the farmers' holdings on the Lond case at Newtownabbey, County Longford, and it is understood that the stock will be offered for sale.

The body of a man named McGarrigal was found dead on the road leading from Ballybofey to Glenties. The man attended Brockagh fair and it would appear that he died on the journey homeward.

Thomas Tiernan, son of the late James Tiernan, of Wilkinstown, County Meath, has been admitted a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland. At the final examination he obtained second place, thereby securing a special certificate of merit.

Deep regret has been occasioned throughout South Mayo at the death of Michael M. Ryan, at Cong, after a lingering illness following an operation. Ryan conducted the Tourists' and Anglers' Hotel, and was many years Chairman of the Ballinrobe Board of Guardians.

A familiar figure in the commercial life of Clonmel has passed away in the person of Walter Geary, baker and flour merchant. Deceased, who was seventy, was an ex-Alderman of the town and had been also a member for many years on the Poor Law Board.

The parishioners of New Ross have decided to make a presentation of a purse of sovereigns to the Right Rev. Dean Kiernan on the occasion of his recovery from his recent accident, as a mark of appreciation of his work in the cause of religion and education for the past twenty years.

At a special court in Mullingar Patrick Daly and Patrick Boland were bound to the peace for driving sixteen head of cattle, the property of John D. Lemon, of Rathcam, a distance of about seventeen miles in July last. Defendants elected to go to jail for two months, declining to give bail.

Thomas Phair, of Enniskillen, driving home from Ballinamallard, found a man named Thomas Stevens, of Manohamilton, lying on the roadside with his throat cut. Phair kindly took him to Fermanagh County Hospital, where he lies in a somewhat precarious condition.

After a long discussion the Mayo County Council decided to apply to the Road Board for free grants of $8,000 odd for steam rolling the Ballina to Belmullet mail car road.

TRINITY COUNCIL

Will Give Fine Presentation of Popular Opera.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., is making preparations for its performance of the celebrated comic opera, "Princess Bonnie," by Willard Spencer, a famous song and operatic composer. Rehearsals are going along rapidly, and some fine work has been accomplished by the singers who have given their services. The opera "Princess Bonnie" has never been played by amateurs in Louisville, but was last seen here at Macaulay's Theater many years ago with Hilda Clark and a fine company of singers. The parts in the opera are all very good and will give those in the cast ample opportunity to distinguish themselves.

As this will be the first time for many years to witness a performance of "Princess Bonnie" much interest has been aroused all over the city and Trinity Council's opera is awaited with keen interest. Prof. Leo A. Schmitt is musical director and Phil Hager is stage director.

LAID TO REST.

The mortal remains of Mrs. Mary Borntraeger, beloved wife of Frank Borntraeger and mother of Louis, William, George, Rose and Clara Borntraeger, were laid to rest Monday morning after funeral services at St. Anthony's church, of which she was one of the pioneer members. Mrs. Borntraeger was sixty-nine years of age and had spent the greater part of her life in the West End, where she was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Next Thursday would have been the fortieth anniversary of her marriage, which was the first to be solemnized with a high mass in St. Anthony's church. Her life was an exemplary one, marked by many virtues and unostentatious charities, and her death is widely mourned.
